

Toronto School of Theology

An Ecumenical Consortium Affiliated with the University of Toronto

Celebrating 50 Years

Virtual Forum Series

Doing Theology during epochal shifts: fears and hopes

Wednesday, October 27, 2021

10:00 – 11:30 pm (ET, Toronto time) via Zoom*

Co-hosts: Trinity College, Faculty of Divinity and Emmanuel College

TOPIC: Shifting Ecclesiological Horizons: Challenges and Opportunities

PRESENTERS:

- Kirsteen Kim, theology and world Christianity, Fuller Theological Seminary, USA
- Tink Tinker, native American and Third World theologies, Iliff School of Theology, USA
- Auli Vähäkangas, pastoral and African feminist theologies, University of Helsinki, Finland
- Joas Adiprasetya, constructive theology and liturgy of “in-between”, Jakarta Theological Seminary, Indonesia
- Xiaxia E. Xue, New Testament studies – Paul and Gentiles, China Graduate School of Theology, Hong Kong
- Gerard Ryan SJ, political theology and recognition theories, Regis College, Toronto School of Theology, Canada

Each presenter, in five minutes, to state concisely three related ideas and expand one. Conversation to follow, for 60 minutes (90-minute forum with Zoom use for two hours).

For Zoom link, contact: Professor Abraham Khan (Trinity College)
khanah@chass.utoronto.ca, 905-706-0569

Please note: This Zoom event will be recorded including attendees, presentations, and conversations.

TST Virtual Forums Advisory Committee: Pamela Couture (Executive Director, Toronto School of Theology), Dorcas Gordon (Knox), Esther Acolatse (Knox), Mark Elliott (Wycliffe), Néstor Medina (Emmanuel), Lee Cormie (St. Michael's), Hilda Koster (St. Michael's), Darren Dias (St. Michael's), Gerard Ryan SJ (Regis), Joseph Schner SJ (Regis), Abraham Khan (Trinity)